GEMS Classroom
Uttarakhand, India

Project Name:

GEMS Classroom

Project Location::

New classroom for school K-11th grades

ODFL Partner Name:

Garhwal Organization for Uplifting the Needy (GOUN)

Project Cost:

$7,600

Needs Assessment:

The children are currently sitting on a mud floor under a tin tent. The need for a new classroom is immediate and urgent.

ODFL will partner with The Garhwal Organization for Uplifting the Needy (GOUN) to provide a new classroom for the Garhwal English Medium School (GEMS), a private K-11th grade school in a rural village in India.

The school recently lost their buildings (the government took them over for another purpose) so the children are currently having their classes under a tin tent on leased land. GOUN has been donated land to build their new school so no one could ever take it away from them.

They are in need of new classrooms, a kitchen, dining hall, computer lab, library, etc. ODFL will raise funds for the classroom while GOUN continues to raise money for the other facilities.

The Uttarakhand Board of Education has approved and endorsed this project.
