

ODFL Partner Profile GEMS, India

The Garhwal English Medium School (GEMS), is one of the projects initiated by the non-government organization, The Garhwal Organization for Uplifting the Needy — GOUN, which means ‘village’ in Hindi.

In order to deal with all the issues associated with poverty that the children in Jaunpur are grappling with, GEMS endeavors to provide children not only with a world class education, but also to address their nutritional, hygienic and health care needs. GEMS aims to take children from nursery to class 12 and equip them with all the necessary skills and tools, putting them on equal footing to compete with their better off counterparts for higher education and careers.
