Question: If we could change the world for a dollar--WOULD we? Well, we can. Now, WILL we?

ODFL builds Bigger People and a Better World. We help American altruists build classrooms, medical clinics, and other projects in developing world countries from donations as small as one dollar.

We have completed 90+ small infrastructure projects in 9 of the poorest countries in the world. Over 300,000 donors have made themselves Bigger People by helping others worse off than they are.

ODFL has raised money from private foundations to pay for “back office” expenses—phones, web site, literature, etc. So, every dollar donated goes into the project you have chosen.

ODFL is simple, inspiring, and accessible. It is a “Change the World” idea that’s working. Join us!
